MEMORANDUM FOR DISTRIBUTION

SUBJECT: Department of Defense Information Network (DoDIN) Approved Products List (APL) approval of the Naval Research Lab Flying Fox Release (Rel.) ORB-WEAVER 1.8.0 Tracking Number (TN) 1612701 as a Cybersecurity Tools (CST)

Reference: (a) DoDI 8100.04, "DoD Unified Capabilities," 09 December 2010
b) DoD CIO "Unified Capabilities Requirements (UCR) 2013," July 2013

1. DoDIN APL approval of the Naval Research Lab Flying Fox Rel. ORB-WEAVER 1.8.0 TN 1612701 as a CST has been granted. The Risk Management Executive (RME) recommended DoDIN APL placement on 17-November-2017 based on the Cybersecurity (CS) testing completed by the Joint Interoperability Test Command (JITC) Advanced Technology Testbed (ATT)-led CS test teams. Per DISA IE; no Interoperability (IO) testing was conducted for this submission. This approval is effective upon the date of this memorandum and expires 17 November 2020 unless a critical issue is identified that invalidates the CS posture of this product as determined by the Chief Information Officers (CIO) for Combatant Commands, Services, and Agencies. Please note that Services and Agencies are required to recertify and reaccredit their systems every three years. Please refer to the DoDIN APL for official posting of this solution at the following site: <https://aplits.disa.mil/apl>.
2. This product/solution must be implemented only in the configuration that was tested and approved. To ensure an acceptable level of risk for each site's Authorizing Official (AO) / Designated Accrediting Authority (DAA), please utilize this solution's deployment guide and refer to the Conditions of Fielding (CoF) as depicted within the Cybersecurity Assessment Report (CAR). The CAR is included in the Cybersecurity Assessment Package (CAP) and can be requested from the Approved Products Certification Office (APCO) per paragraph 4 of this document.
3. Due to the sensitivity of the information, the CAP must be requested directly from the APCO by government civilian or uniformed military personnel.
